

SOCIETY OF YOUNG PUBLISHERS

Helping publishing hopefuls get into the industry

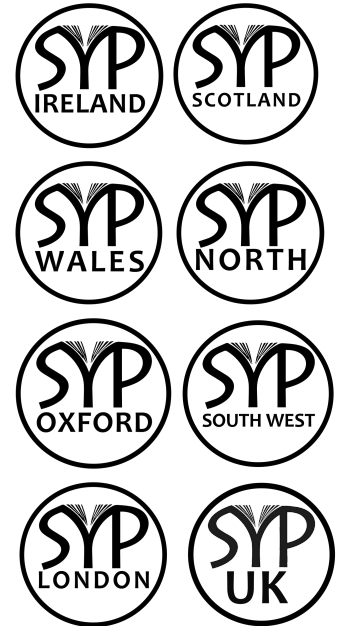

SYP SOCIETY OF YOUNG PUBLISHERS

WHO ARE WE?

At the Society of Young Publishers, our mission is to offer invaluable opportunities and resources to those hoping to enter the industry and anyone in their first ten years in publishing.

With branches spanning the UK and Ireland, our regional network aims to increase the accessibility of the industry through events, digital content, resources, and more!

We have two streams: INTO (targeted to those looking to get into the industry) and AHEAD (targeted towards those looking to develop once in the industry). We offer a mixture of free and member-exclusive events and resources.

WHAT WE OFFER

- Jobs Board: one-stop-shop for industry-wide jobs, all including salaries
- The Spare Room Project: sourcing free temporary accommodation in London for individuals completing publishing interviews or short-term internships
- The Spare Zoom Project: 30-min Zoom sessions between hopefuls and professionals
- Events & Conferences: in-person and virtual events including panels, book clubs and more
- Mentorship Scheme: structured career guidance, formal mentorship period of 6 months
- Digital Content (Blog & Podcast): regular content with insights and guidance
- InPrint Magazine: small-format quarterly magazine with SYP and industry-wide updates
- Resource Centre: packed full of additional content to give extra industry insight
- Monthly Newsletter: round up of our activities, publishing events, courses and jobs
- Trade Discounts: on training courses, subscriptions and events
