

Vanda (President)

Vanda studies the LL.M. in International Law program, and hopes to specialize in Global Conflict and Security. Outside of the university, she is a sustainable security advocate with an extra passion for gender approach to security. She loves food, traveling and jogging, but also sleep. :)

Annika (Vice President)

Annika studies a Masters in International Development with a specialization in International Political Economy. In her free time, Annika likes to photograph, read and travel.

Ilaria (Academic Officer Politics)

Ila is pursuing her master in Conflict & Security with a specialisation in Foreign Policy Analysis. Outside of university, she is passionate about volunteering and helping those in need. She also loves partying and hopes to own a goat farm soon.

Sabrina (Academic Officer Law)

Sabrina studies Human Rights Law with International Conflict and Security. In her free time, she enjoys photography, painting, and seeing how many plants she can fit into one apartment.

Petra (Treasurer)

Petra studies the MA in International Political Economy with a specialisation in EU External Relations. Aside from having a passion for policy, in her free time, Petra loves to travel, swim, and enjoy life.

Kaitlin (Communications Officer)

Kaitlin is in the MA in International Development with a specialisation in Political Communication and Strategy. Outside of school, she enjoys connecting with people and getting involved in the community. She loves food, travel, and relaxing with a good book.

Stefan (Social officer)

Stefan studies Internal Relations with the additional specialisation of EU external relations. He enjoys eating good food, tasting craft beers, travelling, walking, enjoying nice weather, cycling, skiing, having good (intellectual) conversations, meeting new people, speaking in different languages and learning about different cultures.

Ashleigh (Social Officer)

Ashleigh studies International Conflict and Security (MA) with a minor specialization in Political Communication. In her spare time she is an oil painter, documentary photographer and an avid reader of speculative fiction. She is passionate about history, philosophy, film, fashion, comedy, and most importantly, animals!

Kat (EDI Representative)

Kat is pursuing her Master's in International Development with a minor in International Political Economy. She is an avid baker and plant fanatic.