

How do doctors and nurses talk to children during medical consultations?

Can you help us get a better view on effective communication strategies?

If you have a child between 3 & 11 years old and have taken them to a medical appointment in the last 2 months, then please fill in this (anonymous) 10-minute questionnaire! Thanks a lot!