

*

EVIDENCE SEMINARS

*

2023-4

CENTRE
FOR

REASONING

Health Methodology Group (HMG)
Methodological Innovation Network Around the North Sea (MINANS)

Room KS24, University of Kent and on MS Teams

3.30-5pm UK time, unless stated otherwise

Autumn

3 October. Joe Jones & Michael Wilde. Integrating quantitative and qualitative evidence: the philosophy of Evidential Pluralism.

10 October. Symposium on evidence-based policy and regulation (MINANS, online talks). Organised by Alexandra Trofimov.

3.00-4.20pm: Bert Leuridan (Antwerp). Rethinking Evidence-Based Management.

4.20-5.30pm: Jaakko Kuorikoski (Helsinki). The Logic of Regulatory Impact Assessment: From Evidence to Evidential Reasoning.

17 October. Reading group. Elliot Stern 2015, Impact evaluation. Led by Michael Wilde.

(24 October. Reading week.)

31 October. Mariusz Maziarz (Krakow). Does evidential pluralism go hand in hand with a pluralistic ontology? Causal inference in economics revisited.

7 November. David Corfield. Further adventures in applied category theory.

(14 November. Ethics seminar.)

15 November. Special HMG session on evidence, values and the mind in medicine, with David Corfield, Alexandra Trofimov, Lubomira Radoilska, Michael Wilde & Jon Williamson. 1-3pm, Templeman Seminar Room 3 and MS Teams. In conjunction with the Centre for Health and Medical Humanities.

21 November. Reading group. Srinivasan, Amia (2020) "Radical externalism," Philosophical Review, 129(3): 395-431. Led by Michael Wilde.

(28 November. Ethics seminar.)

5 December. Michael Wilde & Jon Williamson. The evidential role of the key characteristics of carcinogens (HMG).

(12 December. Ethics seminar.)

Spring

16 January 2024. Maria Federica Norelli (Northeastern London). The evidential role of data and phenomena.

23 January. Brian Kett. An introduction to explainable AI. POSTPONED

30 January. Hugh Robertson-Richie. Medical disease dualism (HMG).

6 February. Martin Michaelis. The reproducibility crisis—does it exist?

13 February. Reading week.

20 February. Lukáš Bielik (Bratislava). Abduction and Disagreement. (Online)

28 February. Symposium on Medical Misinformation (HMG). 3-5pm. Keynes seminar room 6.

3-4pm. Ioannis Votsis (NEUL). Automating Scientific Reasoning: The Case of Medical Research.

4-5pm. Brian Ball (NEUL). Computational Models of Misinformation and Mistrust: a PolyGraphs Project Progress Report.

5 March. Alexandra Trofimov. Why do we need evidence-based law?

12 March. Brian Kett. An introduction to explainable AI.

19 March. Reading group. Saúl Perez-Gonzalez (2024): Evidence of mechanisms in evidence-based policy

26 March. ??? Jonathan Schulte (LSE) ???

2 April. Symposium on evidence in the law. Organised by Alexandra Trofimov.

?? Veli Mitova?

Summer

7 May.

14 May.

21 May.

(28 May. Reading week.)

4 June. Reading group

11 June.

