

LLM - Taught Kent Law School

Welcome information and timetable

Welcome from head of school Rosemary Hunter

I am pleased to welcome you to Kent Law School and look forward to seeing you at our Welcome Week events, as detailed in this timetable. You will soon benefit from our very particular approach to teaching and research as a critical law school. This means that you'll learn not only what the law is, but what it can become. I encourage you to attend everything during welcome week, as this is the start of your critical legal studies.
