

4th Annual Comparative Animal Law Symposium

17-18 MARCH 2026

We are seeking submissions from early-career scholars from around the world working in the field of comparative animal law broadly understood. Up to 8 selected participants will benefit from the opportunity to present their work at our 4th Annual Comparative Animal Law Symposium.

Participants are invited to reflect on comparative animal law, including:

- histories of animals in law;
- animals in constitutional law;
- tensions between animal rights and local cultures;
- the economics and politics of animal law;
- the transferability of legal rules related to animals;
- conflicts between animal rights and human rights;
- intersections between animal law and environmental law;
- the challenges of global animal law;
- the future of comparative animal law.
