

CyberFirst Advanced

27th – 31st July

Interested in Cyber Security? Studying computer science or have a passion for all things tech?

This Summer, take part in the NCSC's free "CyberFirst Advanced Course", delivered by QinetiQ.

Across the course you will practically develop your skills in:

- Digital forensics
- Encryption technologies
- Penetration testing
- OSINT

Hear directly from Industry and Government professionals working in the sector.

Explore world class learning environments and the study/employment routes available to you

Who can attend?

You must be 16 – 17 years old (Y12)

Reserve your place:

This course will be hosted by the Institute of Cyber Security for Society (iCSS), University of Kent. Scan the QR code to fill the application for a chance to be selected.

