Introduction to the Tizard Centre

Introduction to the Tizard Centre

- Founded in the 1980s.
- National and international reputation of excellence.
- One of only a small number of academic groups in the UK specialising in intellectual and developmental disabilities or autism.

Our Focus

Who?

- Children, young people and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities or autistic individuals.

Where?

- Health, psychology, social care, and education.

Topics

- Behaviours of concern, mental health needs, offending behaviour, physical health, relationships, inclusion, education, service settings.
- Working with and supporting those who support this group (family carers, staff, services, etc.)
- Developing services, organisations and cultures to support these groups appropriately.

Applied focus

- Focus on wellbeing, self-advocacy, and quality of life.

Aims of the Programme

1

Contextualise the discipline within the broader societal landscape, reflecting the field's growth and evolution globally and notably in the UK.

2

Develop an advanced and nuanced understanding of theoretical concepts, experimental principles, and real-world applications related to applied behaviour analysis and positive behaviour support through diverse assessment methods.

Aims of the Programme

3

Specialise in providing values-driven, evidence-based, compassionate and ethically sound services to individuals with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities.

4

Acquire advanced behaviour-analytic knowledge and skills applicable across diverse settings, including educational, health, community, and social care services supporting people with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities.

Aims of the Programme

5

Cultivate independent learning, critical thinking and decision-making skills to evaluate, interpret, and employ the evidence derived from research in applied behaviour analysis and positive behaviour support.

6

Develop into versatile professionals, equipped to collaborate effectively within multidisciplinary teams serving individuals with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities.

Aims of the Programme

7

Develop into professionals prepared to assume leadership roles championing high-quality services rooted in applied behaviour analysis and positive behaviour support for individuals with intellectual and/or developmental disabilities.

Aims of the Programme

International Behavior
Analysis Organization

Approved Content Provider
International Behavior Analyst

UK Society for Behaviour Analysis

Subject to meeting additional requirements external to the course.

Fulfil the eligibility requirements to:

Take the Board-Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) or Board-Certified Assistant Behavior Analyst (BCaBA) examinations via Pathway 2.

Complete the supervised, competency-based fieldwork required to qualify as a UK-BA(cert).

Sit the International Behavior Analysis Organization (IBAO) examinations to qualify as an International Behavior Analyst (IBA).

What if I am unsure about the certification I would like to pursue?

- This is a very personal decision.
- Primarily related to where you will reside for work.
- If uncertain, please come and speak to me directly when we mingle!

Programme Structure

MSc is the only entry pathway.

Total credits: 180

All modules need to be completed.

Alternative Exit Awards:

- PG Diploma
- PG Certificate

Alternative Awards

- If registered for MSc and pass all other modules and placements, but fail or cannot complete the dissertation/work-based learning.
- An alternative exit award may be offered by the Board of Examiners.
- Example: PGCert or PGDip.

- Includes write-up of paper (Intro, Method, Results, Discussion).
- Video recording all steps of the process.

Work-Based Learning

Complete:

- Assessments, including baseline.
- Experimental Analysis (e.g., FBA, Reinforcer Assessment, Preference Assessment).
- Intervention Design
- Intervention Implementation

Essential Considerations

Delivery Mode & Attendance

You are expected to watch all the recordings.

You are strongly encouraged to complete all the activities.

Attendance at the online synthesis sessions is compulsory.

Synthesis Sessions

Important:

- Essential that you come prepared, having watched most, if not all, lectures.
- Completing at least some of the readings in advance is also recommended.
- Be prepared to participate in activities, having your camera and mic on.
- Sessions will be recorded.
- Closed captions might not be entirely accurate!

Terms and Conditions—Synthesis

Online Module Synthesis Session - Terms and Conditions, MSC in ABA/PBS

Online Module Synthesis sessions form a core part of the course and play an important role in enhancing the learning experience for Tizard students. They are designed to give distance learners the opportunity to ask questions, practise applying knowledge, and collaborate with their peers.

We recognise that distance learning often takes place from a work or home environment; however, it is essential to maintain a consistent level of quality during these sessions to ensure the best possible experience for everyone. For this reason, we have set out a series of criteria that all distance learners are expected to follow.

Please note that we are unable to offer flexibility around these criteria. If you believe you will be unable to meet them, you should contact the module convenor as soon as possible to explain your circumstances and, where relevant, provide supporting evidence.

Repeated absence from these sessions will trigger the engagement process, as all Synthesis sessions are compulsory. Further details can be found in your handbook.

Technical and Participation Requirements

1. I agree to keep my camera on and visible throughout the entire duration of the session to facilitate engagement and maintain academic integrity.
2. I will remain ready to unmute my microphone at all times when requested by the instructor or when participating in discussions.
3. I will join the session from a private space where other individuals are not visible or audible in the background, ensuring a professional and distraction-free learning environment.
4. I will log in using my official university Microsoft Teams account only. Personal or alternative accounts are not permitted for these sessions.
5. I will not have any AI assistants activated (including but not limited to voice assistants, chatbots, and AI-powered applications) during the session.

Workload

The full-time course requires approximately 40 hours/week to ensure you make the most of your time with us.

The part-time course requires approximately 20 hours/week to ensure you make the most of your time with us.

Therefore, you are strongly encouraged to prioritise your studies, as you will risk:

- Achieving poor outcomes.
- Delaying your completion.
- Becoming burnt out.
- Ending up not enjoying the course.

Changing Routes

- If you signed up for the full-time distance learning course but are in full-time employment, you have set yourself up for a tough year!
- I strongly recommend you switch to part-time.

Attendance Expectations

- Attendance at synthesis sessions is closely monitored.
- According to our attendance policy, persistent or prolonged absences will be addressed (see the handbook).
 - For example, students may be required to meet with the programme director or to repeat or to intermit studies the following year.

Advanced Issues in Values, Ethics and Professional Practice (2025/2026)

Synopsis

Teaching Staff

Learning Outcomes

Module Assessment

Synopsis

Behaviour analysis provides us with a powerful technology for changing behaviour, but our clients may be very young and/or vulnerable. How can we ensure that we are harnessing the technology ethically, compassionately, and for the best interests of our clients? How can we navigate the complex ethical challenges that often arise in practice, and how can we meet our ethical responsibilities to the field?

Through consideration of key ethical issues in supporting people with intellectual and developmental disabilities and appraisal of current ethical guidelines and codes, you will develop an advanced understanding of the role of ethical and professional conduct in applied behaviour analysis and positive behaviour support. You will critically analyse contemporary issues in ethics, such as the importance of quality of life, assent and cultural responsiveness, and reflect upon the historical context that drove ethical developments in the field. The module will provide you with opportunities to practice your skills in applying ethical standards and generating solutions, identify unethical practices in others, and demonstrate a grounding in values- and evidence-based support. These core skills will provide a solid foundation for your career as a behavioural practitioner at the forefront of ethical and professional practice in the field.

Recording

- Teaching sessions are video & audio-recorded.
- Campus-based students are still expected to fully attend all required sessions in person.
- You can find out more about KentPlayer here: KentPlayer - Your studies - University of Kent
- Closed captions are available–bear in mind that they won't necessarily be entirely accurate.

Communication

- Regularly check your University email.
- Do NOT contact us using private messages on TEAMS or Moodle.
- Gather all questions in one email.
- Allow us five days to respond.

Staff Workload

Important to understand your academics' workload.

Priorities include:

- Research
- Consultancy
- Teaching

Staff Workload

Research

- PhD Supervision
- Grant Applications
- Publishing Papers
- Reviewing Papers
- Present at Conferences
- Editorial Work

Consultancy

- Individual Cases
- Short Courses
- Collaboration with Services

Teaching

- Not only in the MSc in ABA/PBS!
- Undergraduate Courses
- Other Postgraduate Courses

Assessments & Grading

Assessment

All modules include two assessments broken into:

- 30% weighting of the overall mark.
- 70% weighting of the overall mark and pass-compulsory.

The only exception is TZRD9040/TZRD9041.

- 50% each assignment, and none of them is pass-compulsory.

More information is in your handbook.

Consent & Confidentiality

Some assignments will involve video recordings.

- In those cases, you will be explicitly expected to address confidentiality.

In other assessed work (e.g., dissertations), you will gather data from participants.

- In those cases, you will be expected to gain informed consent, monitor assent, and also ensure confidentiality.

Marks will be deducted for not adhering to these expectations.

- More information in your handbook.

Academic Integrity

- APA formatting in all assignments.
- Do NOT share your assignments with each other-Might lead to Plagiarism.
- Do NOT copy the work of others.
- Do NOT use Chat-GPT, Grok, Claude or other LLMs.

Academic Integrity

- Always cite/reference the work of others. (Software can help).
- Seek support from our librarian!
- Read detailed guidance in the handbook.

Terms and Conditions–AI

<https://forms.office.com/e/N2h2ksryiY>

AI Use Policy Acknowledgement Form MSc in ABA/PBS

As future Behaviour Analysts, it is essential that you develop your skills to fluency. Our discipline involves supporting vulnerable populations, and ethical, socially valid practice requires that you demonstrate your own knowledge and abilities. Reliance on AI-generated content risks undermining these skills and could lead to harmful outcomes for the individuals we serve.

This form confirms that you have read, understood, and agreed to abide by the MSc programme's AI use policy.

1. You may use AI tools only for the following purposes:

- Accessing materials, summarising content, or supporting note-taking (e.g., Microsoft Copilot, Notion AI).
- Grammar and spelling checks (e.g., Grammarly, Microsoft Editor).
- Research support (e.g., RAYYAN for systematic reviews, Covidence).
- Transcribing interviews (e.g., Otter AI, Sonix).

2. You must not use Large Language Models (LLMs) such as ChatGPT, GROK, Claude, or Gemini to generate, paraphrase, or write assignment content, unless a module explicitly permits this for a specific task.

3. Consequences of breach

- Any assignments suspected of containing AI-generated content will be referred through the University of Kent's formal Academic Misconduct Procedures, where you will be notified, have the opportunity to respond, and retain the right of appeal.
- If a student is found responsible for misuse, penalties may range from a mark reduction or module failure to more serious sanctions, depending on severity.

WhatsApp Groups

- What you discuss in those groups is up to you.
- Our official communication channel is the Moodle Forums.
- Be careful when discussing assignments!!!

Discussion Forums

General Group Discussion

Submitting Assignments

- All assignments are submitted electronically on Moodle.
- Students can resubmit to the inbox until the deadline to check their similarity report.
- The final assignment must be uploaded by the deadline.
- For submissions requiring appendices, they should be added after the references section.
- Deadline is 12:00 on the date the assignment is due unless otherwise specified.

Submitting Assignments

- All assignments should have a cover sheet.
- Available on your General Information Module.
- Your assignment will NOT be marked without it.

Assignment Cover Sheet DOCX

Submitting Assignments

- Assignments submitted after the deadline without an approved extension will incur mark deductions per the policy:

Up to 24h late.	Mark capped at 60%.
Up to 48h late.	Mark capped at 50%.
More than 48h late.	Mark of zero.

Grading

We aim for a three-week turnaround (during term time).

- You will be notified of any deviation from this.
- Exception: dissertations where marks are available after the relevant Board of Examiners.

You will receive feedback on your assignments – via Moodle – and an overall grade.

- The feedback is more important than the grade!
- Read the feedback!

Grading

Grading follows the relevant annotation for the assignment (see Moodle for details).

- Assignments are moderated to ensure consistency in marking.

All marks returned to students are subject to moderation and the ultimate decision lies with Board of Examiners.

- October BoE
- June BoE

Grading

- Grading uses categorical marking.
- Classifications:
 - Pass – 52-58%
 - Merit – 62-68%
 - Distinction – over 72%

Numerical Scale	Classification
100 95 85 82 78 75 72	Distinction
68 65 62	Merit
58 55 52	Pass
48 45 42 38 35 32 25 20 10 0	Fail

Additional Information

Requirements for Award

- To pass the programme, students must achieve a pass mark (i.e., 50+) on all relevant modules.
- See Moodle for the Divisional/School policy on mitigating circumstances.
- Subject to Board of Examiners approval, you may (at a fee) be invited to resubmit work or resit exams that have failed, but resubmissions will typically be capped at 50.

Career Opportunities

Specialists in ABA and PBS are in high demand across various settings, including:

- Mainstream and Special Education
- NHS Services
- Community support services
- Residential Services
- Home programmes
- Early Intervention Clinics

Advanced qualifications can lead to more senior roles and increased responsibilities.

- Clinical Supervisor
- Behaviour Consultant
- Behaviour Specialist
- Practice Leader
- Associate Director
- Head of Positive Behaviour Support

Research Opportunities

Many MSc students proceed to pursue research.

PhD research scholarships available.

- Very competitive.

Research assistant opportunities available.

- Will vary depending on available grants.

Tizard Learning Disability Review

- Peer-Reviewed Journal
- Impact Factor and indexed in the major databases.
- Great opportunity for our MSc students to experience the process of peer-review.
