

Conference

Best Practice in Working with Adults with Autism

Thursday 10 September 2015

University of Bedfordshire
Park Square, Luton LU1 3JU
9.00am - 2.00pm

This one-day conference is organised by Making Research Count at the Universities of Bedfordshire and King's College London, in partnership with the Tizard Centre at the University of Kent, National Autistic Society, Local Authorities and Clinical Commissioning Groups to deliver the Autism Strategy in Bedfordshire.

Presentation topics:

- Person-Centred Approaches
- Skilled Support
- Assessing Needs
- Post-Diagnostic Support
- Experiences of Hate Crime and Discrimination

Speakers:

- Dr Julie Beadle-Brown
Reader in Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities
Tizard Centre, University of Kent
- Dr Jill Bradshaw
Lecturer in Learning Disability,
Tizard Centre, University of Kent
- Andrew Powell
NAS Teenage Life programme
Bristol and
NHS Bristol Autism Spectrum Service
- Lisa Richardson
Research Assistant
Tizard Centre, University of Kent
- Mari Saeki
Project Officer
Greater Manchester Autism Consortium and National Autistic Society
- Additional speaker to be confirmed

Chair:

Dr Martin Stevens
Social Care Workforce Research Unit,
King's College London