

Fourth PhiGS Colloquium

20–21 June 2022

University of Kent Cornwallis East SR2

Programme

Each talk comprises 30 minutes presentation and 20 minutes Q&A

All times are in BST (UTC+1)

Day 1: 20 June 2022

10.30–11.00	Gathering and Greetings
11.00–11.50	Taymaz Azimi Sadjadi University of Kent The Sense of Kinds of Being: Putting the Theory of Degrees of Being to Work
11.50–12.40	Mark Garron University of Kent The Enduring Self between Manifest and Scientific Image
12.40–1.40pm	Lunch
1.40–2.30	Mariano Martín-Villuendas University of Salamanca Veritism and the Problem of Scientific Understanding
2.30–3.20	Joel Yalland University of Kent Agreement and Disagreement: Conditions or Family Relations?
3.20–3.40	Tea Break
3.40–4.30	Patrick Skeels University of California, Davis Disagreeing about 'Might'
4.30–5.20	Tanuj Milind Raut University of California, Irvine Are Prejudices like Hinges?
ca.6.00	Conference dinner (Extra cost approx. £20–25)

Day 2: 21 June 2021

10.45–11.00	Welcome back
11.00–11.50	Atus Mariqueo-Russell University of Southampton Desire theories of wellbeing and the harm of depression
11.50–12.40	Elliot Porter University of Kent Manic Perspective and Mystic Perspective
12.40–1.40pm	Lunch
1.40–2.30	Lada Muraveva École Pratique des Hautes Études Disease of the Body or Disease of the Soul? The Definition of Mental Disorders in Medieval Medical and Philosophical Works
2.30–3.20	Sofia Melendez Gutierrez University of Cambridge Ante Rem Structuralism and the Semantics of Instantial Terms
3.20–3.40	Tea Break
3.40–4.30	Jason A. DeWitt Ohio State University A Problem for Global Pragmatism
4.30–5.20	Gavin Thomson University of Kent Making More Explicit: Extending Logical Expressivism to Mathematics
5.20	Thank yous and wine reception