

Student Benefits of Volunteering at Medway Gaming Festival 2023

Why Volunteer at Medway Gaming Festival?

- Get to enjoy the festival for free!
- Gain show experience and opportunities to get involved in future events across UK
- Show T-shirts to keep
- Networking opportunities
- Great fun and meet new friends
- Access to the 18+ exhibitors & Staff party

Areas:

There's many ways to get involved in MGF23, from tech, media to simply engaging with audiences in fun features and playing dress up! These include:

- RetroLand - supporting period Dioramas
- Life-sized D&D - support the DM and support the audience in life-sized dungeons and dragons skirmishes
- Gel Blaster Arena - PvP or Target arena
- Gaming zones - support the staff in running the huge gaming zones across the event
- Photographer - have a DSLR and a love of photography. This could be for you
- GameDev support- if you want a future in gamedev this is for you

Timing:

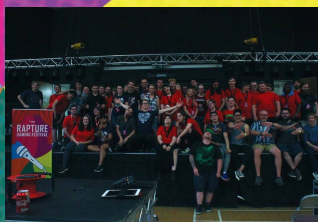

One Day Volunteering (8.30am - 5.30pm Sat or Sun)

For this option you can pick either the saturday or the sunday to work (limited number available for each) In return you get to have a show T Shirt to keep and access to the exhibitor party saturday night and the event the other day.

Two Day Volunteering (8.30am - 5.30pm Sat and Sun)

This is ideal for those wanting a career in a related path to the event. Same benefits as the one day volunteers but we will also cover your food and drink. Allowance will also be made for breaks to explore the show during the weekend.
