

Let's Talk About Domestic Violence... A free event for women with learning disabilities

Rochester Corn Exchange

22nd of February 2016

1pm - 5pm

Come and Join Us- Free Lunch Included

You can bring a supporter if you want to.

The event will have different workshops, videos and speakers talking about domestic violence, including information on how and where you can get help if you need it.

Please pick 2 workshops from the list below by ticking the box

Workshop 1 - Josephine Project: A drama based workshop looking at domestic violence through Josephine and her diary

Workshop 2- Beverly Lewis House: The only refuge for women with learning disabilities will be talking about the help they can give women in abusive relationships

Workshop 3- Respond: This will look at the thoughts and feeling of women who experience domestic violence and what help and support is available to them

Workshop 4- Choices: A workshop to help understand why some abusive men behave in this way and to help women to recognise the warning signs of a man who could be abusive

If you would like come please tell us your:

Name:

Contact Number:

Please return this form by post or email to Claire Bates at either c.bates@kent.ac.uk or The Tizard Centre, Woodlands, Giles Lane, University of Kent, Canterbury, Kent, CT2 7LR.